

Application - Consent for Use of Term 'Physiotherapy'

The following should be considered in a business name:

- Include a descriptor such as “physical therapist”, “physiotherapist”, “physical therapy” or “physiotherapy” to indicate the nature of the business.
- Ensure the name not identical or so closely resemble the name of another business name that it is likely to confuse or mislead the public or cause conflict with another business
- Comply with College Bylaw 83 Marketing and Advertising

Proposed Business Name: _____

Type of Business: Health Profession Corporation
 Clinic/Practice

My name is _____, my registration number is _____ and
I confirm that I am a full registrant in good standing with the College of Physical Therapists of British Columbia.

Registrant Signature

Date