

CPTBC

College of Physical Therapists
of British Columbia

POSITION DESCRIPTION

JOB TITLE:	Professional Practice Advisor
POSITION CATEGORY:	Part time employee, up to 22 hours per week
REPORTING TO:	Manager, Professional Practice
DIRECT REPORTS:	None

SUMMARY

The Professional Practice Advisor is responsible for providing advice and resources to physiotherapists and members of the public related to professional obligations. The role focuses on providing advice that is based on legislation, standards of practice, code of ethical conduct, advisory statements and practice guidelines. The Professional Practice Advisor develops new professional practice resources, participates in the planning and delivery of educational events such as webinars and contributes to the ongoing strategic and business planning activities of the College.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Provides advice on professional practice related issues.
2. Identifies trends in physical therapy practice and health service delivery.
3. Develops professional practice resource materials.
4. Contributes to the development and management of activities that support and enhance safe, ethical and effective physical therapy practice.
5. Develops communication and key messages about professional obligations.
6. Contributes to the ongoing development and implementation of the organization's strategic plan in areas involving physical therapy practice.
7. Drafts articles for the newsletter on practice related topics
8. Develops and supports practice related webinars and educational opportunities
9. Other duties as required.

SKILLS, KNOWLEDGE AND ABILITIES

- Entry-level education as a physical therapist preferred
- Post graduate education in physical therapy, rehabilitation science or a related field an asset
- Regulatory experience an asset
- Solid understanding of clinical practice, standards of practice and related professional obligations
- Ability to review relevant legislation and guidance and research/current literature to provide sound and strategic advice on current and emerging issues
- Strong conceptual and analytical skills
- Political sensitivity
- Ability to work as part of a team and independently
- Effective organizational, written and verbal communication skills
- Willingness to be flexible
- Customer service orientated

LOCATION: The College office is based in Vancouver. The opportunity exists for hybrid work.

Approved June 2023